The petitioner filed the present writ petition seeking to issue a Writ of Habeas Corpus to declare the action of the respondents in detaining her husband and his brother Garadi Peda Lalaiah and Garadi Mangaiah, S/o. Narayana as illegal and arbitrary. She also seeks a direction to the respondents to produce the alleged detenus before this Court and to set them at liberty forthwith.

In response to the allegations levelled in the writ petition, the 3rd respondent has filed counter affidavit denying the allegations levelled in the writ petition. According to the respondent, when the alleged detenus were moving under suspicious circumstances on 9/10.4.2007, they were arrested and produced before the concerned Tahsildars on 10.4.2007, who released them on the same day after obtaining personal bonds from the alleged detenus for a sum of Rs.5,000/- each and bound them over for keeping good behaviour for a period of six months.

In view of the averments made in the counter affidavit, no further orders are required to be passed in the writ petition. The writ petition is accordingly closed. No costs.
